

Airline Interview Counseling Application

NAME _____ DATE _____

To begin your Interview Counseling session, please read my book, Flight Guide for Success: Tips and Tactics for the Aspiring Airline Pilot, (available on our website or order below). Then, tell us about yourself by giving a brief description of your aviation background as noted below. Finally, complete this application form and return it to us along with a copy of your airline application, resume, last 3 pages of your pilot logbook (copied full-size) and your payment.

Let us know your preferred interview time and date. We recommend our interview prep session no more than 2 weeks before your scheduled interview, after you've read my book. Upon receipt of your paperwork we will confirm your interview session and give you a specific appointment for either a morning (0900) or afternoon (1400) appointment.

On a separate typed 2-3 page summary, give a brief description of your background in aviation. Tell us how you got started flying, what you've been doing with it, and what your plans are for the future. If you have any specific questions you would like us to research prior to your interview session, or any specific interview questions that concern you, please include them as well. Maximum in-depth information from you will save you time and money.
