Captain Karen Kahn

INSPIRING SPEAKER, AUTHOR & AVIATION EXPERT

Having spent the last 30+ years at 30,000 feet with other people's lives in her hands, Captain Karen Kahn certainly has mastered the art of confidence, determination, communication, and professional and personal growth. Today, she is motivating and inspiring others on how they too can harness their inner captain and soar through their careers and lives embodying these traits. This amazing, inspirational woman is not only a speaker, but an author, career counselor and one of the few pioneering female pilots still working today, piloting the Boeing 757/767 across America.

While counseling aspiring and employed pilots, she wrote Flight Guide for Success: Tips and Tactics for the Aspiring Pilot in an effort to help employed and aspiring pilots synthesize their aspirations and skills into a manageable action plan that would empower them to secure ideal employment or climb the corporate ranks. Today, she has broadened her message to share with others how they, too, can become more confident and succeed in any professional or personal pursuit.

Captain Kahn's ability to motivate, educate and inspire come from her own accomplishments and life experiences in the stressful and complicated aviation industry. She learned that with passion, persistence and focus she could accomplish anything she set her mind to. Now, she is determined to help others do the same. Moreover, her approachable, yet no-nonsense delivery illustrate that honesty, integrity, humility and transparency matter not only in an airline career, but in any career and, most importantly, in life.

As a professional speaker, Captain Kahn has presented at numerous career workshops and young women's events, helping audiences of all ages reach their personal goals. She also provides professional advice, personal resources management and airline interview coaching through her firm Aviation Career Counseling.

Captain Kahn's professional presentations include career workshops, professional and civic meetings, events, trainings, and trade shows. She tailors her presentations to each event ensuring a special and unforgettable engagement. She is an inspirational voice on confidence, determination and achieving goals, and speaks on a variety of topics, including:

- Breaking the Glass Ceiling
- Setting and Achieving Goals
- Succeeding (as a Woman) in Male-Dominated Industries
- Balancing Family and Career
- Marketing Oneself
- Find Your Passion; Live Your Dream
- Workplace Secrets to Success
- Communicating Clearly

Captain Karen Kahn has taken her lifetime of aviation achievements and position as a pioneering female airline pilot and turned herself into an inspiring leader and mentor. Her experience, intelligence, wit and national impact have been providing an inspiring voice to audiences nationwide.

Learn Confidence in Life with Captain Karen Kahn

With unemployment reaching record highs, Americans are finding it increasingly difficult to secure a job. Competition and requirements can be overwhelming. Fortunately, Captain Karen Kahn, a pioneering commercial airline pilot, career counselor and author of "Flight Guide for Success", says landing a job is still attainable, even in a downturn economy, if one has confidence in oneself to succeed.

Kahn optimizes what it takes to land and succeed in a career one loves. She broke the glass ceiling as one of the nation's first female pilots hired and one of the few pioneers still working. While counseling aspiring and current pilots, she wrote Flight Guide for Success to help people like you to build the confidence and skills to succeed.
